Qualifications of Professional Designations as Follows:

CFP® (CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™): In-depth graduate level course usually taken over two years that covers the financial planning process (investments, income taxes, insurance, retirement planning, employee benefits, estate and financial plan development) that culminates in a national Certification Examination. Two-year industry work history and an undergraduate degree are required.

AAMST™ (Accredited Asset Management Specialist™): Designation program that focuses on the total financial picture (asset management process, risk/return elements, asset allocation, investment strategies, taxation, deferred compensation, key employee benefits, insurance, estate planning, regulatory and ethical standards). Candidate must successfully pass a final examination.

ABFP™ (Accredited Behavioral Finance Professional™): Designation program that enhances advisors' emotional competencies, client interactions, and financial planning advice through a thorough understanding of psychological explanations for economic behavior and hands-on practice of knowledge. The ABFP is designed for financial professionals in advanced career stages, the ABFP program brings together comprehensive research and trends from leaders and experts in behavioral finance with engaging, in-class activities that enable you to start using your new skills with existing clients from day one.

AIF® (Accredited Investment Fiduciary®): The AIF® designation represents a thorough knowledge of and ability to apply the fiduciary Practices. Through fi360's AIF Training programs, AIF designees learn the Practices and the legal and best practice framework they are built upon.

AWMA™ (Accredited Wealth Management Advisor™): Designation program that focuses on preserving, growing and transferring wealth (AAMS® topics plus income tax and estate planning for high-net-worth individuals). Candidate must successfully pass a final examination at the end of the program.

APMA™ (Accredited Portfolio Management Advisor™): Designation that focuses on client assessment and suitability, risk/return, investment objectives, bond and equity portfolios, modern portfolio theory and investor psychology. Students have hands-on practice in analyzing investment policy statements, building portfolios, and making asset allocation decisions including sell, hold, and buy decisions within a client's portfolio. Additionally, individuals must pass an end-of-course examination.

CDFA® (CERTIFIED DIVORCE FINANCIAL ANALYST®) Certification program where candidates are required to complete a four-step program and exam designed by the IDFA. A two-year work history in the financial or legal industry is required.

ChFC® (Chartered Financial Consultant®): Designation awarded by the American College of Bryn Mawr. The designee must pass exams that cover a broad range of topics (finance, investing, insurance, taxes and estate planning). A three-year work experience in the financial industry is required.

CIMA (Certified Investment Management Analyst): The CIMA certification program covers five core topic areas and requires that candidates meet all eligibility requirements, including experience, education, examination, and ethics. Applicants must complete five steps in order to earn the certification and complete renewal requirements.

CFA® (Chartered Financial Analyst®): The CFA charter is a qualification for finance and investment professionals, particularly in the fields of investment management and financial analysis of stocks, bonds and their derivative assets. To become a charter holder a candidate must have four years of qualified work experience and pass three examinations, each typically held once per year.

CeFT® (Certified Financial Transitionist): A CeFT® is trained to help clients navigate through major life events and the financial transitions that accompany them. The CeFT is the industry's first designation specifically geared toward financial change and transition. The certification is offered by the Financial Transitionist Institute, which is the training and certification division of the Sudden Money Institute, culminating with an exam.

CPA (Certified Public Accountant): The CPA designation distinguishes licensed accounting professionals committed to protecting the public interest. These professionals offer financial statement audits and other attestation services to help inform investors about the financial health of organizations.

CRPST™ (Chartered Retirement Plan Specialist™): Designation program that focuses on retirement plans (types, characteristics, defined contribution, defined benefit, nonprofit, plan design, administration, establishment, operation, investment objectives, penalties, termination, fiduciary issues, prohibited transactions and regulatory issues) that culminates with an exam.

CSA (Certified Senior Advisor): A program that focuses on the needs of seniors (aging, family & community, health, mental health, financial literacy, Medicare, Medicaid and Social Security) culminating with an exam.

CMFC™ (Chartered Mutual Fund Counselor™): Designation program that focuses on a thorough knowledge of mutual funds (open, closed end, types, characteristics, risk/return, asset allocation, selection, retirement planning and ethics) that culminated with an exam.

CAIA® (Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst): This is the globally recognized credential for professionals managing, analyzing, distributing, or regulating alternative investments, which include private equity, hedge funds, commodities and real estate, among others. Those who have earned the designation successfully pass both the Level I & II exams; have more than one year of qualifying work experience (or four years of professional experience); maintain annual membership dues and abide by the membership agreement.

CLU® (Chartered Life Underwriter®): Those who have obtained this designation have studied the fundamentals of life and health insurance, pension planning, insurance law, income taxation, investments, financial and estate planning, and group benefits. Designees achieve a thorough understanding of a wide range of personal risk management and life insurance planning issues.

NSSA® (National Social Security Advisor Certificate®): This certificate promotes advanced Social Security education providing the knowledge to counsel clients on the best way to claim Social Security benefits to optimize lifetime Social Security income. The knowledge obtained through the NSSA® Certificate Program, in conjunction with adherence to the NSSA® standards of excellence, continuing education, and access to ongoing support, enables those who earn the Certificate to perpetually stay at the top of their game for Social Security Consulting. NSSA Certificate holders are ethical financial practitioners who always adhere to the highest levels of professional conduct.

RICP® (Registered Income Certified Professional): A retirement income certified professional (RICP) specializes in retirement income planning. The RICP is a designation given to professionals who have completed the RICP training program. RICPs help retirees and near-retirees to use the assets they have accumulated for retirement sustainably.

RMA® (Retirement Management Advisor): This program is an advanced certificate program that focuses on building custom retirement income plans to mitigate clients' risks and to master the retirement planning advisory process, all within an increasingly regulatory environment.

SIE® (Securities industry Essentials® Exam): A FINRA exam for prospective securities industry professionals. This introductory-level exam assesses a candidate's knowledge of basic securities industry information including concepts fundamental to working in the industry, such as types of products and their risks; the structure of the securities industry markets, regulatory agencies, and their functions; and prohibited practices.

Part 2 b Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

There are no legal or disciplinary events that are material to your evaluation of our principals, management, or Wealth Advisors (WA).

Part 2 b Item 3 – Other Business Activities

The WAs of MWM may also be licensed insurance agents. Approximately 5% of the time of MWM or its WAs is spent in connection with these activities. Mr. Gaggs is individually registered with Mutual Securities, Inc., member FINRA/SIPC. He may offer securities and receive normal and customary commissions as a result of securities transactions. A conflict of interest may arise from these activities as commissionable sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation they may earn. MWM and its WAs will put the clients' best interest before those of their own.

Part 2 b Item 3 – Additional Compensation

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Part 2 b Item 3 – Supervision

Brad Stark, Chief Compliance Officer, supervises and monitors WAs' activities on a regular basis to ensure compliance with MWM's Code of Ethics. Mr. Stark is supported by several people who have testing responsibilities, including, but may not be limited to, Diane Williamson, Matt Adams, Kieran Osborne, and Greg Smith. Mr. Stark is supervised by CEO, Matt Adams. Please contact Brad Stark if you have any questions about MWM's brochure supplement at (805) 882-2360.
